Cape Rachado Lighthouse

Sitting on top of the summit facing the Strait of Malacca is the historical lighthouse known as Tanjung Tuan Lighthouse or Cape Rachado Lighthouse (meaning broken cape in Portuguese).

This is one of the favourite birds watching spot for visitors, especially during the migratory season of raptors. From the peak, visitors may admire the lush forest scenery below as well as the amazing view of the sea. From the lighthouse, visitors can access jungle trails that lead to hidden beaches such as the Tanjung Tuan beach. Being a protected park, the beaches along this cape are beautifully preserved, with crystal clear waters and sparkling white sand.
